THE EASTERN QUESTION.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—It seems to increase confusion rather than to diminish it. Nothing is known of the intentions of Russia, and the Government is not in a position to give the reasons of the Paris circular, and of the Russian movements. The Government is not consulted in such matters, and the Russian circular was the impromptu act of Prince Gortschakoff, who is the Government for the time being. Turkey makes preparations for war, and all the Continental Powers are increasing their armaments
